Upcoming Study Abroad Opportunities!

The office of global programs is excited to announce that all summer 2022 study abroad programs as well as our spring break program are all live on the Study Abroad as well as Krannert Short Terms Program website! We have several exciting new locations, courses and Krannert faculty that will be taking off to new lands such as Malaysia, Singapore, Barcelona, Costa Rica and Prague. We are going abroad in 2022!

Study abroad opportunities are designed to enhance cultural awareness, develop leadership skills and promote personal and professional growth. We are committed to making these experiences affordable and to create programs that are integrated with the Krannert curriculum that keep students on track to graduate on time.

*Students are encourage to first meet with their advisor to review courses that best fit their plan of study which will jump start the process of signing up for their next cultural and academic adventure! If you have any questions regarding study abroad opportunities, please contact Maria Gabriele, Assoc. Director of Study Abroad (gabriel2@purdue.edu). ## Featured Major: Finance

Finance students in Krannert study the management of wealth and assets. After foundational accounting and economics courses, you'll leap into investment management, financial analytics and corporate forecasting. Graduates start out as financial analysts in large corporations looking at the bottom line and predicting profits. Others begin in financial leadership development programs or investment banking.

Finance Related Student Organizations

Investment & Trading at Purdue (ITP)

As an educational resource, we seek to create an authentic value investing experience for our members through the practical application of valuation methodologies and active portfolio management. Through speakers, seminars, and the operation of a virtual fund, ITP students will become prepared for future careers in investment-related fields including investment banking, wealth management, sales and trading, and consulting. Learn more here.

Financial Management Association (FMA)

Purdue FMA is a chapter of the global FMA organization created to educate and provide resources to students interested in the field of Finance. We are a professional organization dedicated to enriching the academic interest and providing leadership opportunities to our members. Through various local events and networking opportunities, FMA prepares members with an understanding of the finance industry and equips them with the tools needed to succeed in their careers.

As an organization, we also host social, volunteer and fundraising events to further foster close relationships with other FMA members. Learn more here.

Words of Wisdom from Herman Krannert

"To succeed as a leader, you will need to be a creative non-conformist. In other words, you're going to use a predictable organization to accomplish novelty. This capacity to use order to achieve change is a rare ability."

October 22nd - 24th is Parent and Family weekend!

This weekend, October 22nd - 24th, is Parent and Family weekend at Purdue! Krannert will be hosting tours for families on Saturday, October 23rd in the Krannert Drawing Room (KDR). Stop by to show your family Krannert and meet and greet with some Krannert advisors!
